Today, we set out for New York City to visit the New York Botanical Garden! The 250-acre Garden—the largest in any city in the United States—is a National Historic Landmark. Your admission also includes the NYBG's Orchid Show: Mexican Modernism. Set off on a journey where the fusion of tradition and contemporary artistry takes center stage amid awe-inspiring displays of orchids, and wander through lush landscapes brought into vivid relief with thousands of flowers that showcase Mexico's diverse ecosystems and rich cultures.

The café at the Botanical Gardens is available for lunch (on own).

Afterwards, you have time to explore Arthur Avenue at leisure and discover the fine shops before making our way back to Wallingford.
